

"The Color of Truth" By Tehila Israel

What difference does it make what color He is? they say

As they approach the Prophets on the streets and try to bring down what God is raising up.

What difference does it make what color He is? they say

As they try to hold on to the lies and false doctrines, while we are letting go

What difference does it make what color He is? they say

As their failed attempts to cover up the truth is being unfolded, right before their eyes.

What difference does it make what color He is? they say

As the remembrances of slavery, hangings, beatings and babies given to crocs, run often through our minds.

What difference does it make what color He is? they say

As we are constantly reminded of other nations past calamities, yet...we are told to forget ours...it was all in the past, they say

As we relay - the color of Truth

Truth that was laid down, whitewashed, on a white canvas board, behind a white cross, in front of white masters and white pages removed

Our identity stolen as we were given what others believed, yet our forefathers and foremothers obeyed God's command, to note it and it remained in the one place they thought we'd never look, in the Bible, that's right, our History book

The difference is He; the difference is we; the difference is me so, when they say what difference does it make what color He is?

We will direct them to where it is written in Obadiah, spoken by Paul and heard throughout all the lands.

Just what their fate will be with our Black Christ, white hair, wine eyes, bronzed feet, upon golden streets, on a throne that gives our Spirits a boost

Ya see, He, is the difference that makes the color, Truth.
