

The Hour is Nigh

As a breeze blowing through the window of time, so is the striking of a chime or a pendulum swinging on rewind when the clock strikes 9

Yea He cometh like a thief in the night, so be watchful and pray heed warning, do not delay for an alarm is to make us aware do not be fooled by crafty or the devil's snare

He has sent us signs and wonders we can feel in our core our ears have received rumors of war

A mushroom spread across the sky, as told sights are on the horizon as it holds clouds revealed as chariots and beholds like a clay maker who uses fingers to mold every knee will bow, young and old

Repent, do it now submit and be humble with delight to show our hearts are contrite and do trust in Him and His might regardless of the enemy's plight to blur our vision, our sight they display power in their media, while we recite

daily meditations to ignite the strength that feeds our spirits.

Moving in order, we practice the righteous acts He teaches patience with knowledge and in them there is no lack what was written aforetime, was written for our learning, the Bible tells us so all it takes is reading for us to know

As we are ending this journey in captivity, we stand firm on the word of our God, boldly, as He trod

down the nations that harmed, hated and held His people in buildings topped with steeples an imposter hanging on a cross, blasphemy, wickedness and false doctrines tossed we watch for the payback, vengeance belongs to our Lord it is confirmed in the sword

So, we face the East in petition believing TMH would hear no, we have no fear we cheer, because the end is near and when Christ appears it will all be clear who are His chosen people who have lived under His banner not the enemy's ploys, plots or manners Nor

deceitful lust, that thrust or robust vain meats, camouflaged as treats we do not take seats with evil communication but,
flee from the corrupt

they tried to keep us in a zombie state never meaning to elate, only to negate the Truth
so, we waited, debated and stated the coming of God's son
The King of Kings, the Messiah,

He is the only one
The Fathers will be done elevated, translated as related to the tone of urgent our gifts of Grace and Mercy are not taken for granted but instead planted

a belief that all these things would come to pass Israel is no longer masked and we would be dwelling in the Kingdom, at last.

All Praises to TMH
