

Becoming One Flesh: Date Night Edition

So often we find ourselves caught up with the demands of life as a pandemic is looming over our heads. However, on this night, it was about Us. My friend and I. Enjoying fine dining in a dim setting while we sipped and swayed to the performance of Royalty Duo at a table for two. We laughed, held hands, and enjoyed one another's presence.

It is a beautiful feeling when you step out as a couple and your lord is captivated by your beauty and behavior. We have come to realize that we cannot fail to make our alone time a priority in our marriage. Becoming one flesh is a work of art, and both of us have a brush.

If it means slow dancing to Kem under the stars for three minutes while the kids are sleeping in the car, DO IT! It is those moments that will carry you day to day as well as help strengthen your bond with one another.

I thank the Heavenly Father for memories such as these and pray more will be made.

Ecclesiasticus 6:15-17

Nothing doth countervail a faithful friend, and his excellency is invaluable. A faithful friend is the medicine of life; and they that fear the Lord shall find him. Whoso feareth the Lord shall direct his friendship aright: for as he is, so shall his neighbour be also.

Shalom MHNCB!
