He that hath an ear, let him
hear: Captain Amaziah (300)

What is your favorite scripture?

CA: Deuteronomy 7:6 “For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. “ This scripture shows that if we change our minds to what the scripture says it’ll positively affect our mindset to not do evil to each other. Collectively we’ll see we’re better than everyone else and hold ourselves to a higher standard.

What motivates you?

CA: The fear of The Lord is what motivates me to continue putting in my brick to make my calling and election sure.

What advice do you have for our young prophets and princesses?

CA: To, first, study to show yourself approved. Be patient with yourself and your teachers. Your obstacles include peer pressure. Those that come before you know best because they’ve been through it. There’s nothing but DEATH and HELL out there.

As another pagan observation approaches, what do you reflect on?

CA: My family’s still lost; they’re celebrating murder masked as a family day. If they’d allow the scriptures to come to light they’d see this isn’t right and we could see more of each other on Sabbaths and High Holy Days. Much of our wicked family members are unrelenting. They’ll try to persuade you kids to come back to wickedness so be strong, resilient, and studied up so when they come to you, you’re prepared. (1 Pet.3:15)

November 25th is fast approaching and this date begs the question: Is Thanksgiving really about family, food, and being grateful ? The short answer is NO.

Most people are taught through literature, television, and schooling that the first Thanksgiving featured a peaceful meal between the Pilgrims and Native Americans due to a successful harvest. However, we know this story to be filled with lies.

Colossians 2:8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

Thanksgiving is not about family. So called Native American men, women, and children were burned alive, enslaved, and forced into assimilation in order for this pagan observation to be established.

Thanksgiving is widely accepted and celebrated and when the wicked and heathen nations learn that you do not keep this day, you may get ridicule and unwelcome questions. Don't become nervous, upset, or confused. Remember this scripture: 1 Pet. 3:15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Hosea 7:14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

Amos 5:21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

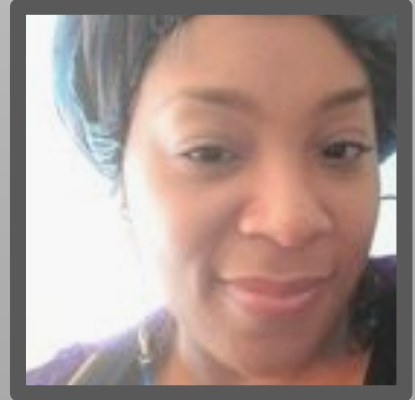

Thanksgiving is celebratory of the genocide of our so-called Native American brothers and sisters. The Most High will NEVER honor a day founded on the bloodshed of His People. Holding hands, eating, drinking, and willfully ignoring our brothers and sisters lamentations will only make The Lord angry and put those who keep pagan holidays at risk of judgement. The Lord HATES these pagan days and we should too. Thanksgiving is a dark and evil day.

Indoor Herb Gardening Video (15 minutes)

This month we are introducing a familiar concept to our young prophets and princesses that will help them learn responsibility, ingenuity, and efficiency. This concept is gardening. We know winter is coming. Learning to grow your own food will equip your family and your neighbors in the time to come and continue to establish our co-dependence on one another rather than those who hate and oppress us. Click on the video below from our Sis. Chana (H.O. Officer Rosh) as she explains microbes, the best environment for growing seeds, and the germination of her seedlings.
