Topic: Foremother Esther Part 2

Synopsis of Last week

Job 39:13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

Job 39:14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust,

Job 39:15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

She does not have natural care for her babies.

We should not be an ostrich's as mothers.

How elephants take care their babies

The baby elephant was protected by the entire heard of elephants. Because the baby was surrounded the lion could not reach it. They didn't leave they baby out in the opening, in danger. The elephants protected that baby. We must watch out for danger for our children and teach our children so we can see when danger coming.

These chickens are taking care of their children. Everywhere the mama chicken went, her children went. She didn't leave them down the block and go with her friends. She always protects them. She kept them in line. If birds know how to care for their children, we should be better than animals in caring for our children.

Children have no business of their own. Their business is your business, They have no privacy in your house. The only privacy they will have is in their own house when they are paying their own bills.

Job 39:16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear;

Her heart is hardened towards her own children. If someone calls you an ostrich this means your heart is hardened against your children. We must protect our children.

Esther uncle said for Esther not to tell them who her people were. This was easy for her to do because she looked mix.

Additions to Esther

Esther 14:12 Remember, O Lord, make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the nations, and Lord of all power.

Esther 14:13 Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion: turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are likeminded to him:

She asked the Lord for eloquent speech and whoever started this plan to kill the Jews, that He would turn the Kings heart against him and turn their devices back to them.

She asked TMH to give her boldness and eloquent speech. She asked to turn the Kings heart. She wanted a speech so she can persuade the man she had to go back to which is her husband.

Esther 5:1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

Esther stood in front of the Kings courthouse in her royal apparel. The King sitting on his throne.

Esther 5:2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So, Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

She walked in and the King found favor in Esther. He held out his scepter towards Esther. Back then you could not come into the courtyard unless the King pointed his sceptre at you.

Esther's eloquent speech was amazing.
She came in and he pointed his sceptre at her. At one point she passed out.

Esther 5:3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. What do you need? What's your request? Whatever you need you know I am willing half of the Kingdom.

Just for her showing up.

Esther 5:4 and Esther answered, If it seems good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

Esther prepares a royal feast and just wanted to invite you (King) to the party I am having the feast and want you and I want Haman to come.

Esther 5:5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

King like Haman let's go.

The King and Haman came to the banquet

Esther 5:6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

The king said "what is it?" What do you want from me? (Meaning he would do anything for her)

He is asking her why she is having the party and what she needed and whatever it was he would give, up to ½ of the kingdom. He didn't even hear the question yet.

She was focused. She was not greedy like most women would have been.

Esther 5:7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is;

Esther 5:8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king hath said. If I found favor in your sight king just to listening to me

“Tonight, I want to enjoy and tomorrow we will have another feast” Esther said. He’s willing to do anything for her,

Listen to her speech. If I have found it pleasing to you and you found favor in me
Petition, what I want tonight is I want you all to come to my other party
Tomorrow.

Esther 5:9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

Haman left the feast he was in good mood. He saw Mordecai and got full of anger again. He wants everyone killed. Regardless of how much the Queen please him he was full of indignation towards Mordecai and he had the spirit of vain glory.

Esther 5:10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

When he went home Haman he told his wife about how Mordecai would not bow down to him.

Esther 5:11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

Haman told his friends of his riches and boasted he was promoted above everyone. He was bragging to his friends like my life going well. I have my wife, children, and I have riches.

Esther 5:12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

Haman said no one can come to the feast except the King and me. She’s honoring us only. Tomorrow she’s having another banquet and only I am invited and the King.

Esther 5:13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

Hamen felt with all this honor he was getting meant nothing to me because Mordecai would not bow down to me

Esther 5:14 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

Zeresh (Hamen wife) and friends were like why don't we hang him? He agreed and made gallows fifty cubit high so the whole city can see it all because Hamen would not honor him.

They said in agreement, "that's right he doesn't honor you and tomorrow we will make the gallows to hang Mordecai".

Haman listened to his wife and his wicked friends. Did his friends give good counsel? No

Sirach 26:23 - A wicked women is giving to a wicked man.

She's wanted to kill Mordecai like let's kill him and make him an example

Esther 6:1 On that night could not the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

The King could not sleep. Someone was called in going to read to him. The Most High put a spirit on him not to be able to sleep. On that night the King could not sleep. Most High put the spirit on him to have a sleepless night.

Chronicles is like all the letters that happen in the Bible.

Esther 6:2 and it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the King's Chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

When he couldn't sleep they reminded him that the two men tried to kill you Mordecai is the one who save the king life, but he didn't remember until they read it out the book.

Esther 6:3 and the King said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him,

The King asked what was done for Mordecai for saving his life. There is nothing done for him. When this man saves my life, what was done to honor him Servants was like we didn't thing for him.

Esther 6:4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

As Haman coming in he's ready to tell the king he want to hang Mordecai from not bowing down, but the King just found favor in Mordecai as he read his Chronicles and Mordecai saved his life.

Esther 6:5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

They King did not know why Haman was coming in.

Esther 6:6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

King asked Haman, "what do you think we should do to a man who honor the King"

Haman thinking in his mind the King must be talking about me. The King must be talking about me because I honor him

Esther 6:7 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour,

Esther 6:8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

Haman said “you should also give the person who honored, a royal garment. Haman has emulation spirit.

He then said to the King you should also allow the person to have the royal horses you ride on and give him one of your royal crowns that sits on your head.

Esther 6:9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

Haman, continues speaking to the king and says “when you deliver the horse that use anybody let it be one of the most noble man the king has. Dress him with the garment and crown and let everyone see it. I want this Noble man to walk him up and down the street that the King sent him.

Esther 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

The King told Haman that’s a great idea and I will go with that. King said take that and give to Mordecai. All that talk sounds perfect and let’s do that to Mordecai bring him in.

Imagine Haman face because he thought he would be the person that would receive all that the king was doing. The kings say bring Mordecai who sits at the gate and give him all these things. This now means Mordecai is honored over Haman and his hatred has been intensified now.

Don’t forget not one great idea you stated. Glorious robe, royal horse, diamonds and crown. Dress him.

God is going to make Haman honor Mordecai. Look how God did that. God exalted Mordecai right there. Haman hated Mordecai to his guts.

Esther 6:11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

Haman must walk Mordecai up and down and everybody sees it. The same guy that try to kill Mordecai, God has it to he is honoring him in front of everyone.

Imagine how Haman felt when he got to dress him and do everything he listed. What Hamen thought was meant for his honor, is now flip flopped. He hates that brother.

Esther 6:12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hastened to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

Haman is stressed out and is grievous. He was embarrassed and went home crying.

Esther 6:13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

Hamen realized if Mordecai is being exhorted by the King, this is bad for him because he has been treating Mordecai like crap. Now, Hamen will suffer the death that he planned for Mordecai. His wife and friends figured it out.

Esther 6:14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

The King went to get Haman to go to the Feast. The Kings chamberlains was like hurry up don't have Esther waiting. He's angry at Mordecai.

Esther 7:1 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

Esther 7:2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

King asked Esther what is it that you want. I'll give you up until the half of the Kingdom. What's your request? Just say it I'll perform it

Esther 7:3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at me petition, and my people at my request:

Notice how respectful Esther is. My lord if you found favor in thy sight and if it please you my king.

Look at her eloquent speech again. She knew when to use her speech wisely against the enemy. Some women don't know how to speak to their Lords today in Israel. She said if it pleases you let my life and my people life be given at my petition. I just need you to save my life.

Imagine the king hearing that and he supposed to be the most powerful man. His wife is coming to him for protection. I need you to help my people. He does not know she's a Jew. Remember Haman wrote a letter in the beginning to kill all the Jews.

Esther 7:4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

She said we are sold - Haman said he will pay $10,000 to anybody to kill Israel anywhere they see them. We are sold to be killed. Esther said not only they want to kill me but all my people.

If I would be sold for slave women or slave men I would have been happy to be a slave. They want to kill me and all my people

Her eloquent speech is on point. She is buttering him up

Esther 7:5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? King like who trying to kill my wife and her people. Who the person to come? against me and my household when I am the ruler

Even though my enemy can't come against you are my strength in the land. You the only one who can save me.

Esther 7:6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

She like he's right here your second in command. While you don't know he's trying to have me killed. It is this wicked man next to you. Haman is afraid right now.

The King looked at him like your trying to kill my wife?

Esther 7:7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

The King took a walk. My right hand man is trying to kill my wife and her people. What wickedness has been going on up in here. Now Haman begging for help from Esther. Please, please help me you got it wrong.

Look at the Highest. Haman was like this King going to kill me. Esther help me help me.

Esther 7:8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, will he force the queen also before me in the house?

As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

King came back from garden, Haman dropped down on Esther's bed to ask for Forgiveness, but the King thought something different. He was thinking that Haman was going to try and force her and rape her too in the palace. You trying to disrespect me? And the King got mad. The servants ran over and put a bag on his face.

Esther 7:9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon and one of his chamberlains told King that Haman made gallows to hang Mordecai, the won who saved your life. (Haman was being sneaky behind King back)
King was like those same gallows we going to hang Haman since he tried to kill my wife and her people.

What was Esther prayer?

14:13 Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion: turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are likeminded to him:

She prayed for eloquent speech and to turn his heart.
TMH did exactly what she asked.

Our foremother was bold and kept the commandments. She said she has no helper, but you God. God did change his heart.

Esther 7:9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. King says hang him for everybody to see it for coming against me, my wife and her people.

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified. They hung Haman on the same gallows he prepared for Mordecai and afterwards king felt good.

Proverbs 26:27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.
If you did a hole for someone to fall in it that stone will fall on your head.

Psalms 7:15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

If you're a troublemaker and screaming on someone for no reason you will get it back. The same you ditch dug you will fall in it.

Esther 8:1 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

Esther told the King the people Haman was trying to kill that was my people you gave your ring too sign

Esther 8:2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. King took his ring off and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set her uncle over Haman house.

Look at Gods favor over Israel!

Esther 8:3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

Now she's crying to her husband and change the command because that's my People. Those letters you signed is towards my people that were going to be killed.

Esther 8:4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So, Esther arose, and stood before the king,

The King held out his sceptre towards Esther. She's crying at his feet

Esther 8:5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces: She said if it pleases you.

Her eloquent speech is on point. She's not talking as an unrepentance woman. If it pleases you anything I say to you please your heart can you help me people?

If I loved you, have had kindness, gentleness and have been a peaceful wife if I did anything, help us. She can't stand him as well, but she still honors him and played her position for her people. She was not selfish.

So, what you don't like in a sister, help your sister anyway. Help and move - that's how we must do this. Do it sincerely not fakeness. Pray to the Lord to teach you how to overcome the evil that come against you. If you see your enemy hungry give her food. Real women lead by example stop complaining. They will look at you like this is a woman of God despite my evil. Stop complaining and start loving each other. Be that exceptional woman to get the Kingdom.

Esther cared about her people not self. Stop the evil.

If you don't like it don't be here. Stop pointing out what others are doing wrong. Be the example can be the biggest teacher. Don't take on evil spirits still do what thus saith the Lord. They know who the real sisters and who's the fake sisters.

You may be the only sister that is right in the room, let your light shine. Don't let no sister bring you out the spirit. Keep me like a pillar of rest. Be that servant and example. You are blessed if they talk about you and hate you. Let them talk You are getting your crown for Christ!

Esther 8:6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

We should be praying and fasting. No one should leave this class and be an ostrich and not loving your children. You don't know who your children coming back as a prophet or one of our foremothers. Look at your children as gifts from God.

Even though you may be going through something love your children. Communicate to your children when you are going through it. You are telling your son he's a king and treat him like an unrepentant boy. Same as your daughter, love your daughters. You have a chance to love your children regardless of what your parents or mother didn't do. It's our job to build our children's self-esteem. They are priest and princesses. You can't tell them that and treat them like garbage.

Don't be an ostrich and love your children from your soul
If you were not doing it, start today. Pray and confess to your children you were a crappy mother and start doing right today. Love them even if they have special sickness. Christ can heal the children.

Esther 8:7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

Esther 8:5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

Esther ask her husbands to rehearse the letters to stop the killing.

Esther 8:6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

I can't live and my people receive evil. I can't endure to see this destruction on my people. She loved her people. Stop pointing fingers on other sisters. Focus on you. If a sister is a liar correct her and focus on your house. Give her the scripture and put the mirror back on you.

You must take care your own house. Know your children weakness and strengths and make their weakness their strengths before Christ returns.

Esther 8:7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. King didn't just give her Haman but the whole house in her hands.

Esther 8:8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing, which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse. Write the letter and seal it. Once you write the letter and sealed the new one no one can reverse it.

Let's see what Most High did in her favor.

Esther 9:13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

She said let it be granted to the Jews that's according to your decree. Haman has 10 sons was hung too.

Proverbs 21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

No matter whoever the hardest person you must deal with is, their heart is in the hands of the Lord. Whatever Most High want Trump to do is what will happen. The Lord said I can turn his heart his mind like rivers. Whatever I tell the King to do Lord said he will turn it in his way.

Esther fasted and prayed to God and not the King. In your house with your husband and he's like a lion it's a God you can fast and pray too for help. Pray to your God. He will only help you if you are keeping the commandments. Humble yourself greatly and I will exhort you.

Esther 9:13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

Esther 8:9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

He let Mordecai write the letter. The King put Mordecai second in command.

You know he wrote it in favor of his people

Esther 8:10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: he wrote to every king in every language to save his people. He's not selfish either.

You think brothers and sisters didn't get on their nerves sure they did but they love they people anyway.

Esther 8:11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, Mordecai added in the letter if they come at all my people defend yourselves. Fight back. God gave him the spirit to be that warrior and God is with them. There is power in keeping the commandments. The Little ones will fight back and defend themselves.

Esther 8:12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

Esther 8:13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

They said all of you get ready to fight with all your strength and might against them if they didn't get the letter.

Esther 8:14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

Esther 8:15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Mordecai Wales our and stepped out like he's the man. They were was like he saved our life.

Esther 8:16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour. They felt honour just to see him in the seat after fasting for three days

Esther 8:17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Everybody wanted to be a Jew. They had joy and gladness. They had a Feast.

We must build our boys up because the world hates them already

She not paying attention, she spotted danger to late. (the ostrich mother)
You have all people in your children face that is ungodly. It's our job to know about our children. We must have to spot danger before it's too late.
Single sisters be careful who you bring in your house and around your children they can be trying to harm your daughter. Prove everyone as the scriptures say. The Lord says are actions are weighed.

Most High and Christ Bless
