

A Day In Her Shoes

How can I be like this woman Abigail standing before me with understanding and blameless,
When my actions are actions rooted of bitterness and shameless,
I am not able to walk a day in her shoes,
Dealing with the things I go through,
I have been deceive, thought I knew something,
When in fact I know nothing,
Especially how to treat a king, my king,
How to deal with him rather he is gentle or whether he is mean,
LIKE ABIGAIL A GOOD WOMAN would stay in the spirit and apply 1 Peter 2:18,
Dealing righteously with her king,
Rather he is good and gentle or froward,
She would comfort him in his distress,
As well as exhort him toward,
Greatness,
I CANNOT BE
LOUD
PROUD
NAGGING
COMPLAINING
OR DEMANDING,
I HAVE TO BE HUMBLE
MEEK
PATIENT
SILENT AND LOVING,
Like my righteous example before me,
I should be
A WOMAN OF UNDERSTANDING,
In ALL MY ACTIONS,
Lord I pray for a spirit like Abigail
A double portion, I'll even settle for a small fraction,
Bridle my mouth, create in me a clean heart, give me of a mind well instructed,

Sarah

Give me not over to a reprobate mind
Self-destructive ,
Thanks for her example I understand I have to choose,
Whether to be good and win or whether to fail at life and loose,
Whether it's trouble of the flesh, marriage problems, or whatever Abigail is living proof,
I'm not giving in nor giving up,
I'm just going to build up,
MYSELF,
That's what a righteous woman do.

Author: Odeda Yisrael
Edits Tehila Israel IUIC Los Angeles
Approval: Edna Israel HO Officer Ahrayah