

Quiz: Are you obedient like Sarah?

1 Peter 3:6(KJV) Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

Our foremother Sarah was the epitome of obedience. How obedient are you?

For each question, choose the answer that best describes how you would react in the given situation.

1. Your lord asks you to support a major life change, such as moving to a new city for his job. How do you respond?

- a) Agree immediately and start making plans
- b) Agree, but express your concerns
- c) Reluctantly agree after much persuasion
- d) Refuse and choose to stay in your comfortable, familiar surroundings

2. You have been working hard all week; early mornings and late hours. You just got home, your feet hurt, and you are ready to retire for the evening. Your lord asks you to prepare food for six brothers. What do you do?

- a) Get to it without hesitation, you enjoy cooking for others
- b) Drag your feet and go unwillingly
- c) Reluctantly agree to do it after much persuasion
- d) Flatly refuse and go to bed

3. You're asked to travel to other schools in your country to help other sisters in the truth. Doing this will disrupt your usual Sabbath routine. How do you respond?

- a) Agree immediately, ready to sacrifice your time
- b) Agree after careful consideration and prayer
- c) Try to find an alternative sister to fill the role
- d) Refuse

4. You receive a message that requires you to take on a new and significant responsibility. What do you do?

- a) Have faith and accept it immediately
- b) Ask for more information before agreeing
- c) Express doubt but eventually agree
- d) Refuse or complain

5. Your lord promises something that seems impossible. What is your reaction?

- a) Believe wholeheartedly without doubt
- b) Believe, but with some skepticism
- c) Initially disbelieve, but later come to accept it
- d) Dismiss the promise as impossible

6. You're asked to hide and protect strangers of your people with great personal risk. What do you do?

- a) Agree immediately and do everything to help them
- b) Help them, but with caution and fear
- c) Reluctantly agree, but might turn them in if pressured
- d) Refuse to get involved

7. Your lord wants to make a major purchase you think is unwise. What is your response?

- a) Support his decision without question
- b) Share your concerns but ultimately agree with him
- c) Insist on a compromise
- d) Firmly oppose the purchase

8. Your lord tells you to stay home with the children instead of working. How do you respond?

- a) Agree immediately, embracing the role of full-time mother
- b) Consider it carefully and discuss other ramifications
- c) Suggest a part-time compromise
- d) Refuse, asserting your desire to maintain your career

9. Your lord tells you to cut ties with a worldly friend. What do you do?

- a) Agree without question and cut ties
- b) Reduce contact but maintain some connection
- c) Argue about maintaining the friendship
- d) Ignore his orders and continue the friendship as before

10. You are asked to help teach other sisters. How do you respond?

- a) Eagerly take on the task and dedicate yourself to it
- b) Agree to help, but only in a limited capacity
- c) Suggest someone else who might be better suited
- d) Decline, feeling unqualified or unwilling

11. Your lord asks you to dress more modestly. What is your reaction?

- a) Immediately change your wardrobe to suit his preferences
- b) Make some changes while maintaining your personal style
- c) Reluctantly make minor changes
- d) Refuse and dress as you please

12. Your lord asks you to take a more active role in the congregation. What do you do?

- a) Enthusiastically embrace the opportunity
- b) Agree to increase your involvement gradually
- c) Reluctantly agree to minimal involvement
- d) Refuse, preferring to keep your current level of involvement

13. You hear a new breakdown of the scriptures from the Bishops. How do you respond?

- a) Accept it immediately and fully embrace it
- b) Listen with interest and gradually accept it
- c) Remain skeptical
- d) Reject it outright

14. You are busy with many tasks when an important guest arrives. What do you do?

- a) Stop everything to spend time with the guest
- b) Quickly finish your tasks, then join the guest
- c) Continue your work, feeling resentful of the interruption
- d) Ask the guest to come back at a more convenient time

15. You are asked to do a small kindness that turns into a bigger task. What do you do?

- a) Happily, complete the entire task, going above and beyond
- b) Do what was initially asked, but hesitate to do more
- c) Complain about the increasing demands but complete them
- d) Stop once the task becomes more than you agreed to

16. You have skills that could help others. How do you use them?

- a) Actively seek opportunities to use your skills to help others
- b) Help when asked, but do not go out of your way
- c) Occasionally help and often make excuses
- d) Keep your skills to yourself

17. Your lord wants to handle all the finances. What is your reaction?

- a) Trust him completely with all financial matters
- b) Agree, but ask to be kept informed of major decisions
- c) Insist on joint management of finances
- d) Refuse, preferring to maintain separate finances

Scoring System

For each question, assign the following points:

- a) 4 points
- b) 3 points
- c) 2 points
- d) 1 point

Total possible points: 68

Obedience Level:

60-68 points: Exceptionally Obedient

51-59 points: Very Obedient

42-50 points: Obedient

33-41 points: Moderately Obedient

24-32 points: Somewhat Obedient

15-23 points: Needs Improvement in Obedience

0-14 points: Tends Towards Disobedience

To calculate your score, add up the points for each of your answers. Your final score will indicate your level of obedience based on your choices in the scenarios. Remember, this quiz is for reflection and entertainment purposes. True obedience is from the application of the scriptures.